

Тем, что эта книга дошла до Вас, мы обязаны в первую очередь библиотекарям, которые долгие годы бережно хранили её. Сотрудники Google оцифровали её в рамках проекта, цель которого – сделать книги со всего мира доступными через Интернет.

Эта книга находится в общественном достоянии. В общих чертах, юридически, книга передаётся в общественное достояние, когда истекает срок действия имущественных авторских прав на неё, а также если правообладатель сам передал её в общественное достояние или не заявил на неё авторских прав. Такие книги – это ключ к прошлому, к сокровищам нашей истории и культуры, и к знаниям, которые зачастую нигде больше не найдёшь.

В этой цифровой копии мы оставили без изменений все рукописные пометки, которые были в оригинальном издании. Пускай они будут напоминанием о всех тех руках, через которые прошла эта книга – автора, издателя, библиотекаря и предыдущих читателей – чтобы наконец попасть в Ваши.

Правила пользования

Мы гордимся нашим сотрудничеством с библиотеками, в рамках которого мы оцифровываем книги в общественном достоянии и делаем их доступными для всех. Эти книги принадлежат всему человечеству, а мы – лишь их хранители. Тем не менее, оцифровка книг и поддержка этого проекта стоят немало, и поэтому, чтобы и в дальнейшем предоставлять этот ресурс, мы предприняли некоторые меры, чтобы предотвратить коммерческое использование этих книг. Одна из них – это технические ограничения на автоматические запросы.

Мы также просим Вас:

- Не использовать файлы в коммерческих целях. Мы разработали программу Поиска по книгам Google для всех пользователей, поэтому, пожалуйста, используйте эти файлы только в личных, некоммерческих целях.
- Не отправлять автоматические запросы. Не отправляйте в систему Google автоматические запросы любого рода. Если Вам требуется доступ к большим объёмам текстов для исследований в области машинного перевода, оптического распознавания текста, или в других похожих целях, свяжитесь с нами. Для этих целей мы настоятельно рекомендуем использовать исключительно материалы в общественном достоянии.
- Не удалять логотипы и другие атрибуты Google из файлов. Изображения в каждом файле помечены логотипами Google для того, чтобы рассказать читателям о нашем проекте и помочь им найти дополнительные материалы. Не удаляйте их.
- Соблюдать законы Вашей и других стран. В конечном итоге, именно Вы несёте полную ответственность за Ваши действия – поэтому, пожалуйста, убедитесь, что Вы не нарушаете соответствующие законы Вашей или других стран. Имейте в виду, что даже если книга более не находится под защитой авторских прав в США, то это ещё совсем не значит, что её можно распространять в других странах. К сожалению, законодательство в сфере интеллектуальной собственности очень разнообразно, и не существует универсального способа определить, как разрешено использовать книгу в конкретной стране. Не рассчитывайте на то, что если книга появилась в поиске по книгам Google, то её можно использовать где и как угодно. Наказание за нарушение авторских прав может оказаться очень серьёзным.

Наша миссия – организовать информацию во всём мире и сделать её доступной и полезной для всех. Поиск по книгам Google помогает пользователям найти книги со всего света, а авторам и издателям – новых читателей. Чтобы произвести поиск по этой книге в полнотекстовом режиме, откройте страницу <http://books.google.com>.

This is a reproduction of a library book that was digitized by Google as part of an ongoing effort to preserve the information in books and make it universally accessible.

All that are known to have been Members of Corpus Christi College in Cambridge.

N.B. This Catalogue contains in an Alphabetical Series the Names, together with their Counties, Times of Admission, and Degrees of all the Masters of this College from its Foundation to the present Time; of all the Fellows from the Year 1440, and of such of them before that Time as could be collected from the Archives now remaining; and of all the other Students from 1544, but imperfectly however, and with little more than their Surnames before 1590, when a Register began to be regularly kept; from which Time it is brought down with more exactness, but I dare not presume to say without Mistakes; since where such a Number of Names, Dates, &c. are to be often transcribed, it seems almost impossible to avoid making some: I hope therefore every one who is acquainted with the great trouble of reducing them into this Order, will be so candid as to make a proper allowance for them. The Publication of this (before the other part of the Work) is, with a view of rendering it the more complete, since it is hereby put into the power of all Biographical Collectors, (especially of such as are or have been of this House, and so are more immediately concerned for its Credit and Reputation) to make some additions thereto, by communicating to me any Memoirs relating to the Families, Characters, Works, &c. of any of its Members; any Notices of which sort will be most thankfully acknowledged.

The Dates of the early Fellows being for the most part such as were accidentally met with in old Writings, cannot shew with any certainty the times of their Admission, nor indeed can that of any of the rest before 1590 be determined with any great exactness. I found the variety of Spelling (especially in the early Times) so great, that I have had but little regard to it, and the Letters i and y used so promiscuously, that I have ventured to place them together, and sometimes to make use of one instead of the other. I have with the assistance of my Friends, already made some considerable Collections relating to those Members who have Stars * placed before their Names, and shall gladly embrace any opportunity of enlarging them. The few and short Notes at the bottom of each Page (which would have been more and longer, had my leisure been greater) were added by the Advice of a judicious Friend, who was of Opinion, they would be useful Hints to any Persons that might be pleased to favour me with their assistance. The Fellows are distinguished by an F, placed after their Names, and where I doubted about any thing in the Notes, I have put Qu? before it.

Good name in man or woman Is the immediate jewel of our souls.
Who steals my purse steals trash; 'tis Dwells mine, 'tis his, & has been slave to thousands But he that filches from me my good name Robs me of myself; he not enriches him And makes me poor indeed. Shakes. Othello

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document, spanning the main body of the page. The text is heavily obscured by dark, irregular ink smudges and blotches, making it largely illegible. The script appears to be from a historical period, possibly 18th or 19th century.

To the subscribers to y^e Plan &c.

Gentlemen.

The best method I can take to render myself worthy of y^e favour you have conferred on me in encouraging y^e publication of my Plan, is to do myself justice in making some few remarks on M^r Master's Advertisement & Plan, & in comparing one with y^e other. But as I have been deprived (as well as others) of y^e happiness of seeing M^r Master's Original Design, y^e grand Design of such an Original, I shall take y^e liberty to supply the want of it, by publishing some remarks on a print th he has lately published, being the same th in my answer to his Advertisement I declared to be an incorrect Copy of my rough Drawings; To explain th it will be necessary to inform you y^t I made two diff^t plans of the

the Design before he'd fix on any thing particular, & setting aside the mistakes w^h he has made for want of understanding it, his Print may be allow'd to be taken from my 2 Plans; as to w^h Elevat^{ns} I differ ence betwⁿ them is so small w^t they may be esteem'd of same, if proper allowance be made for his blunder. But before I begin to examine his Print, I beg leave to say a word or two to his Advertiser^s * for the publicatⁿ of w^h I cannot but acknowledge myself extremely oblig'd to him; for whether his design in it was good or bad, w^h advantage to me is much greater than I c^d have ex-pect'd had he not publish'd it; & as there is something very partic^r as well as ingenious in the Composition of it, I think it proper, notwithstanding I have assur'd it before to examine it again. In the first part he seems to lay a very great stress on my publishing w^h design without I consent or approbation of the Society. I own myself very much oblig'd to the greatest part of the Society for their Approbatⁿ of it before it was publish'd, but why I sh^d ask their consent to publish it

* See his Adv^t at I End it I know not; but really think M^r M. more liable to censure himself for publishing my Drawings without my consent, except as I refused to sell them to him as new Drawings, & w^d not have taken anything for w^t use he had made of them provided he had returned them to me, as he promised he w^d in 2 or 3 days and farther.

In the next place he says I have likewise insinuated w^t it was of my own designing; w^{ch} I think I have sufficiently answered in my Advertisement.

Then he proceeds to inform w^t public w^t I Original Draught of it by his own hand with the several Alterat^{ns} & Addit^{ns} w^{ch} have been since made may be seen by any one at his Chambers in the 1st College, & w^t I was no otherwise employd therein than in copying out his Design. It is a very great pity this Gentleman doth not oblige the world with the Plan & Elevat^{ns} of his original Design, w^{ch} w^d in my Opinion be the best way to decide w^t question in dispute; for as every body may then have an opportunity.

kindly of comparing the Copy & Original together, they will doubtless give their opinions as they find they agree.

As to his saying I was no otherwise employed than in copying his Design, I think if he was capable of making the first draught himself (ith we may very suppose if made by him was but a rough one) tho' it might very well express the proportion the parts had to each other & to the whole, he had no occasⁿ to send for me to make a rough Copy of it, because he might have done it himself; but if I had been employed to copy his Design it was not to make any addition or alteration either in situation of the parts or in proportion of them, but only in point of neatness of drawing; for he who cannot determine these things himself can never make a design.

In his N.B. he says he has already printed a suffic^t No for presents to his friends, which was all he at first intended, but if I sh^d persist in my scheme will think him himself obliged to print more very soon, it will be sold for one shilling each. ~~He~~

B was designed as I suppose to intimidate me from proceeding in my design, & he tho' he c'd easily do by terrifying me with the thought of what I sh'd lose by publishing it. But in this he is very much deceived; for as I had no other view in publishing it than to satisfy I wrote who was the real author of it; I have all I desired by proving I am, & sh'd have been satisfied with doing this if I had actually lost as much by it as I at first expected; for it is not I fear of losing can make me submit to a mean action, nor of hope of gain excite me to commit one.

As to his giving out y^t he directed me in drawing the design, it is as absurd as any thing he c'd have said; for if he had been able to have directed me how to draw it, he c'd not have been at a loss in directing another to copy it, but this he was so far from being able to perform y^t he himself c'd not make a scale to it, y^t I had purposely left out of my rough draw-

Drawing. ~~How much he understands~~ ~~of the~~ But without troubling myself further about his Advertisement or anything he can say, I shall proceed to examine his Print, by th it will appear how excellent an Artist he is at designing, how capable he was of directing me in drawing, & how much he understands of I plan th he has with so little justice published in his own name.

 In order to shew the mistakes & alter-* rations made in the design by M^r M. I have marked the parts referred to in my plan with th same letters th he makes use of.

The first thing he direct us to in his reference is I old Court (marked A) th I have shewn but in part, thinking it not worth putting in; but shall take notice of one great mistake th he has committed in this, th is placing the building th joins to the new part (where the letter A stands in my plan) too near the street by a great many feet by th mistake he has made one room if not two in each story without any windows, & consequ^t dark if not useless.

When

When I consider this mistake I cannot help taking notice ^{again} of that part of his advertisement, where he says, I was no otherwise employed than in copying out his design. I cannot after such a declaration as this expect if he will allow me to have been employed in measuring of ground, because it is he contradicting himself. Whence came this mistake! If he did not, nor will allow me to have been employed to do it for him, if question is Who did it? For without it he could not have regulated & measured any part of this design. There were 3 persons present at ~~the~~ measuring the ground, M^r M. myself & M^r M' for the Butler's boy, & last of all shifted it rod. I leave it reader to judge if I was employed to measure of ground, or whether I was any otherwise employed than copying his design.

The Hall B in M^r M' print is made wider by several feet than it really is. The same mistake is committed also in the rooms belonging to the Lodge and end of hall, where he has likewise left out of frame.

In

In the part of Lodge marked C I have made 3 rooms & a ^{large} staircase th have a communication with the old part by a corridor. It will not be improper to observe one mistake he has committed here, i.e. by making of room next to chapel a separate apartment from the lodge: what use he intended of room for I know not, but very well remember he th have had but 2 rooms in the Lodge at first, & the ground taken up by of room he tho't to have left open, but I had very good reasons to make it otherwise.

The old chapel (D) is to remain with very little alteration, but I observe he has made an ante-chapel in his print, notwithstanding I had some difficulty to make him understand that it was necessary there sh^d be one.

Mr M. tells us in his references of E is the gallery over of Cloister, & F of Library over of Cloister, th I take to be nonsense, it being impossible to represent them in of plain th & of dotted lines (which if my memory fails not were taken from my first plan) might have serv'd very well for of purpose if he ^d have have described them as he ought to have done.

F. in my plan, is a little arcade made to support I back part of the Library above, th he th needed not to have been any wider than I cloister, & indeed I have had some difficulty to make him understand it, but must own if he had understood very little of those arts th are so necessary for a qualification of an Architect, he th have found a necessity of making it wider himself.

G. I suppose to be a room for a chapel clerk, (not but it may serve for any other person) th in my 2^d plan I made instead of a little room th he very improperly calls a summer house; th room by his partic^r desire was put in my first plan, I believe in a same manner as represented in his print; but certainly nothing th be more ridiculous yⁿ this contrivance of his to loose an apartm^t in each story for a sake of one pitiful room of about 14 f. square! but this is one part of his own ingenious scheme.

H. part of the stable yard

m~

M^r M. has followed my design in this notwithstanding his design was to build Stables & other outhouses next Street on a ground marked X. but he has represented them so ill in his print, y^t I defy anyone to distinguish a Brewhouse from a Stables.

M^r M. without doubt has some very learned reasons for leaving the letter I out of a reference, tho' he cd have none ext^r for leaving a Combination Stairs out of a plan, th^o in mine is marked with this letter.

One I think it impossible y^t I seal author of a Design shd be at a loss to describe it & point out ~~each~~ ^{the} format of each particular part thereof I dare they were designed for. — But such is the case of a pretended author of this design, who having forgot a Combination Stairs in the plan he publishes, knew not where a room itself o^u to be, therefore placed it over a Buttery & Larder at a venture; & being at a loss (as we may justly suppose) to find a way up to it, tho^t to supply w^h want thereof, by those few steps is at one one corner of I Hall look so like a boxing-block: for if they were intended for a stair up to a gallery, they cannot answer y^t end; because they will rise no more yⁿ $4\frac{1}{2}$ or 5 feet from a ground at most; nor id I imagine any person so stupid as to think of making stairs in y^t place, espec^y in a form there represented.

L. the several apartments

In these apartments he in have had a chimney in a diff^r fitⁿ from what they are here represented, & as I made them in my first plan to suit his taste, but he has tho^t proper to copy my 2^d tho not without blunders.

III. The kitchen with a Combination over it, in M^r M. but of a very great mistake put over a Buttery & Larder; but it is no wonder he sh^d mistake the room when he lost y^t stairs.

N. The Buttery, in he has made it same as I made them in my 2^d Plan, but I have made a little alteratⁿ in this for particular reasons. Before I leave this part

part, let us look into ^{of} screens & there we shall see another of his most ingenious mistakes, th shews as much as anything what part he had in contriving this plan. It is observable in mine ^{of} the new building th joins to this end of ^{of} Hall is wider than ^{of} Hall itself; to hide a defect th will naturally be occa^d by several breaks in ^{of} entrance from the Cloister, th will be easily be conceived by any who understand Architecture: but ~~offence~~ how he has contrived it in his print; in th is a very thing ^{of} was made to hide a defect he has ignorantly put in to make one th any one may soon discover who compares his print with mine.

But to leave ^{of} Plan; let us look in ^{of} Elevatⁿ in th we shall find some blunders th are but trifles, such as displacing the Chimnies, making a garret window too much in each wing, & some other mistakes in ^{of} pediments over the doors, with several others in the perspective, all th are excusable espec^y as it was copied from a rough drawing

Drawing under I direction of one who seems to be ignorant of Optics.

But the greatest mistake of all is w^t I Plan & Elevation do not agree in their measures. ^{to} I proceed from nothing else but his Ignorance of w^t Design, or his Ignorance of Geometry, or of both; for had he been acquainted with a proposition or two in Euclid (partic^l I, 10th of I ~~the book~~) he w^d have been able not only to have made them agree, — but to have made a proper scale to I plan, of ^{it} at pres^t he seems to understand but little. But I will now leave him to correct these mistakes, & at I same time recommend to his serious consideration the following passage in Vitruvius, as it is translated by M^r. Perrault, ^{it} may be of service to him hereafter. " Puisque l' Architecture est enrichie de la connoissance de tant de diverses choses, il n'y a pas d'apparence de croire qu'un homme puisse devenir bientôt Architecte, & il ne doit pas pretendre a cette qualite a moins qu'il n'ait commence des son enfance a monter par tous les degres 17 degres des sciences & des arts qui peuvent elever jusqu'a la derniere perfection de l'architecture."

M^r M. having found himself obliged to publish his Point instead of producing his pretended original Plan & Elevatⁿ will doubtless find himself obliged to support & credit of it, by proving y^t what I have therein remarked as mistakes & ~~blunders~~ ^{blunders} are in reality per-fections & agreeable to his original design, in nothing but my Ignorance of ~~them~~ ^{it} make me condemn as imperfect or incorrect. But I hope when he undertakes to do this, he will likewise produce y^t original plan & elevatⁿ he advertised to be seen at his chamber, & he will greatly oblige

Gentlemen,

Whereas Ja^s Eph^r jun. of this place has lately published proposals for engraving & printing by subscription at a price of 2.6 a plan of an intended New buildg of Corpus Xth Coll. without y^e consent or approbation of y^e society, & likewise insinuated y^t it was of his designing; this is to inform y^e public y^t y^e original draught of it by M^r Master's own hand with y^e several Alterations & Additions th have been since made, may be seen by any one at his chambers in the said college, & y^t Eph^r was no otherwise employed therein than copying out his designs.

NB. M^r M. has already printed a sufficient No for presents to his friends, th was all he at first intended, but if Eph^r sh^d persist in his scheme will think himself obliged to print more ^{very soon}, th will be sold for one shilling each.

Cambridge Oct. 4. 1748

Whereas M^r Masters of Corpus Christi College has lately published an advertisement wherein he pretends to inform of publick y^t original design of an intended new building in Corpus Christi College was made by his own hand; & y^t this design, with several additions & alterations ^{to} have been since made, may be seen by any one at his chambers in the said College; & y^t Eves was no otherwise employd therein yⁿ in copying out his design; this is to desire y^t said M^r Masters to produce a plan & elevation of his pretended design, with y^t copy thereof, to publick view, so y^t they may be compar'd; & y^t said Eves will not only make it appear y^t it is his own design, but y^t y^t said M^r Masters is incapable of making such a one; & y^t y^t print he has published are incorrect copies of a rough drawing made by y^t said Eves, & has been copied without his consent or approbation.

NB.

NB. As the said Essex is determined to persist in his scheme, he proposes to publish some remarks on Mr Masters's original design, wherein he shall find occasion to observe how little he is acquainted with of duodecim neceparia, the remarks will be given gratis to the subscribers, if of fair Mr Masters persists in his scheme of selling his prints for 1 each.

John Green fellow of St John's C. & assist^d to Mr Hunter in Lichfield free school, afterwards chapⁿ to Ch^d D. of Som^{er} then Regius Prof^r of Divinity, then Dean of Lincoln & at last I worthy Bp^o of Ex^{ter} see in he filled with more ability & dignity y^t any of his predecessors, since Bp^o Gibson — Green & Newton were old friends: both made Bp^o together, both consec^d Bp^o & were happy to meet at last in same church, Bp^o G. being made Residentiary off^{ce} Pauls in a room of Egeston promoted to Durham: for Lincol. is so large & laborious, so very extensive & expensive a diocese y^t it really requires & deserves a good commendation to support it with any dignity. When he was first made Bp^o of Lincol. Bp^o N. reminded him of a common friend of theirs Mr Seward of Lich^{field} whom he knew y^t Dr. other was, well disposed to serve, & hoped y^t one time or other he w^o collate him to a prebend in a church of Lincoln.
The Bp^o replied y^t he sh^d always bear him in memory, & if ever an opportⁿ offered he w^o certainly give him a prebend, but at pres^{nt} he stood engaged eleven deep to Dr. of Newc. D. Hardw. & their friends. 15 y^r intervened before he was able to make good his promise & then Mr S. generously resigned his pretensions to a nephew of his wife & a. of rev. Mr Hunter, & Dr Bp^o as generously accepted him. Bp^o G. was a very good scholar & had an ele^gant pen in Lat & Eng but he was too lazy & indolent to write much: He pub. only a few occas^l sermons & a lett^r to Dr. rev. Mr Bebridge & Mr Whitfield ag^t the theat^r. His charges to his Clergy were much commended & it is to be lamented y^t he did not prepare & order there & some other pieces for publicⁿ. He was a live a prudent manager & oeconomist, or he id not ha made I provision y^t he did for two nephews & 4 with some bequests to charitable uses. He was nearly a strong man, & 3 y^r ^{younger y^r} before. N^o so y^t it might reasonably have been expected y^t he id be longer lived y^t two. But for 3 or 4 years before h^{is} death his health & spirit began to fail; & yet in winter of 1778 & 9 he was rather better yⁿ he before. & when he took leave of his friends and off^r Paul in order to go to Bath they little imagi id be y^t last time y^t they sh^d ever see him: fo having rec^d great benefit at Bath I year bef^e it was hop^d y^t he id experience y^e same good y^e this year. But at his first coming to Bath he ca cold, & y^e water disagreed with him. He had too light paralytic stroke, of th he soon recovered: but constitutⁿ app^d to be more out, & he ~~was~~ became every day to droop more & more. However on Sa evening he had his party at cards as usual, & was tolerably well y^t night, breakfasted as usual Sunday morning, when his chaplain went out, his apothecary came in, & having felt his pulse he was something better. As they were sittin^g talking to^g I. by butler who was attending observed his head to recline on one side, & suppose to be nodding as he freq^t did in his chair: but a little more intently at him he sd to his ap^o for I am afraid my lord is dead, & so he really w^{as} with a single groan or sigh. The tide is related Berkeley who was poss^{ess} nec. to M^r Pope, of every in heaven. There 2 worthy persons may truly be inf^{er} phrase of holy writ, to have fallen asleep. Newton
